Flatspace III Golden Age Music Pack

Landscapes Across Time

This is the fourth Flatspace III music pack. Like any in-game music for Flatspace, music will trigger at random when you enter a new sector.

This pack contains special Flatspace edits of four tracks from the 2023 album The Golden Age by Mark Sheeky, an art-rock album with a theme of paintings and painters from the 17th century.

These instrumental versions of the tracks were created and chosen to complement the feelings of space and vastness that characterise the Flatspace universe.

Included Music

Welcome To My Gallery

A rip-roaring chase down the a musical, and artistic, wormhole. This track also opens the Golden Age album.

Nature Morte

Nature Morte is the French term for a still life painting. A gentle track, played live in one take on a Yamaha MODX synthesizer. This is a unique shorter edit of the album version. The sheet music for the full track is only 19 bars long.

Cotán

Juan Sánchez Cotán was a painter of gentle, almost hypnotically sacred, paintings. This track attempts to evoke his monastic mood.

Tycho Brahe The Noseless Astronomer

In a break from the painter theme, this song is about Danish astronomer Tycho Brahe. This Flatspace edit has something of a bold alien march about it.
